

Who are we?

Our team includes investment and commercial real estate specialists, spread over three competence centres (Geneva, Vaud and Neuchâtel).

Naef Investissement & Commercial is supported by the Naef marketing department and accompanied by the Group's subsidiaries, such as Acanthe, active in real estate expertise and asset management, Alios, an architecture and construction management specialist, and Sioux, an expert in real estate project development and management.

Our services

Are you looking for a property estimation?

We define the market value of your investment property for sale or for rent.

Do you wish to sell your property?

From the valuation to the signing of the deed of sale, including a personalised marketing strategy, our advisors leave nothing to chance to ensure an efficient and confidential sale, at the best price.

What about optimising your assets?

Our experts will help you develop your real estate portfolio strategy to improve your returns while identifying investment opportunities and risks.

Would you like to rent out your commercial space or offices?

Our dedicated team will help you develop your commercial space. Our advisors will do their utmost to optimise your performance objectives by defining target rents and a marketing strategy as well as providing the necessary support during the leasing process.

Ready to market a new project?

Whether it's promotion management, technical and architectural skills, initial rental, management or marketing, we offer you the synergy of Naef's experts to guarantee the excellence of all our services.
